Building Bridges, Inspiring the Future

AGM 25 April 2026

In 2025, we built bridges

The image features a stylized illustration of a bridge with a red and grey color scheme. The bridge has a prominent arch structure. The background is a mix of light and dark grey, with several gears of different sizes scattered throughout. A faint city skyline is visible in the lower middle ground. The overall aesthetic is modern and technical.

BACKGROUND AND EDUCATION

Born in Warsaw in 1977, grew up in Paris from age 5. Graduated from École Polytechnique, specialising in Aeronautics and Aerodynamics at ISAE Supaero and Imperial College London.

AERODYNAMICS CAREER IN F1

Entered motorsport in 2001 at Prost GP, then spent five championship-winning years at Ferrari with Michael Schumacher, followed by seven years at McLaren — culminating as Head of Aerodynamics.

FIA & TEAM LEADERSHIP

In 2014 joined the FIA as Charlie Whiting's deputy, shaping F1's strategic vision. Became Renault F1's Executive Director at Enstone, and effectively Team Principal of Alpine F1 through their first Grand Prix victory in 2021.

BEYOND THE PITWALL

After leaving Alpine in 2022, Budkowski launched the World Cup of Motorsports as CEO, founded the Racing Future Academy to develop motorsport in Poland, mentors young drivers targeting F1, and is a regular F1 analyst on Eleven Sports.
